Create for us a book that's nifty:

Hep was Ann with ideas new,

On pictures Carol was the main screw,

Engineering the "dummy" was handed to Lynda,

Shirley excelled on the rhyming agenda.

Milton Mollenkopf
Principal

An ever welcome "substitute"
In social studies courses
Is Principal M. Mollenkopf
With humorous discourses.

When snow engulfed the football field,
He got some boys together
Who shoveled it off in time for the game—
Our "Mollie" beat the weather!

In his new Pontiac he'll whiz
With destination—West;
Our summer school'll be on its own
While he enjoys a rest.

Board of Education has already opened forty-seven new classrooms, and a new Central Junior High is on its way.

REAR—Business Mgr. L. O. Wurtemberger, Theodore S. Long, V. Pres. Ralph H. Weaver.
FRONT—Mrs. Ray Niemi, Supt. H. B. Turner, Pres. Charles E. Gaffey, Clerk-Treas. Mabel C. Wolfe, George W. Secrest.

He is our "Handy-Andy" man,
As everybody knows;
From Frolics fuss to formal prom
He's always on his toes.

He always seems so jovial
His presence makes us glad.
And he believes that boys and girls
Are never really bad.

When P-A problems start to pop,
Our Mister Lovett's there;
A whiz with volts and amps and watts,
He does our wires repair.

O. A. Lovett
Assistant Principal

Marie O'Rourke
Dean of Girls

Her Irish eyes a-twinkle,
Her smile broad and bright,
Her calm, efficient manner
Make everything seem right.

Her wardrobe is the envy
Of more than one sharp "gal."
To anyone in trouble
She surely is a pal.

She listens to our problems,
Decides each case with care;
And we respect her judgment
Because it's always fair.

Louis H. Swart
Dean of Boys

Boys jam his crowded office,
He handles all their cares,
He rearranges schedules —
You'd think he'd have nightmares.

He is a nifty dresser;
We think his crew cut's "hep."
His help with N. H. S.
Gave its floorshow pep.

At nine there's time to doze;
Then Mrs. Thoman starts to teach
Both poetry and prose.

In Typing Class it's 30 per
At which we aim our speed.
In Geometry we're always sure
That proofs and arcs we'll need.

In Crawford's room "Zo" class is gay,
For jokes are in the air.
Laff's baseball team makes great headway
When days are warm and fair.

My teacher in Math must think I'm dumb,
For figuring problems leaves me numb.

Those strange, far lands I'd love to see,
I learn about in Geography.

In English if we split th' infinitive,
We find our grades become diminutive.

Once leaves all looked the same to me,
But not since I took Botany.

At lunchtime I eat very little,
So from my waist the pounds I'll whittle.

When teacher says to us, "Right face,"
Our class turns left—sad case.

Cooking helps us catch our man —
For us no dining from a can.

Can we forget that woman without pity
Who knitted and knitted in "The Tale of Two Cities"?

Since we have learned to run a drill,
We'd like a job within a mill.

In Woodshop, cutting with a saw,
We strive for work without a flaw.

In Business Math we work with zest
To find the rate of interest.

Because a lawyer is the teacher,
Commercial Law's a top-notch feature.

When pictures must be finished "quick,"
Our darkroom helps us turn the trick.

Miss Dennison had us write a theme;
It made Cauldron—a fulfilled dream.

In Sewing Class our seams must meet.
We cut out patterns and learned to pleat.

Culture came to Harding when
Our Choir presented "The Highwayman."

X was the unknown quantity
Which drove us to insanity.

At the Hallowe'en game we played "Dry Bones"
While skeletons danced to the trombones' groans.

In Home Economics we learned how to dress;
On manners was put tremendous stress.

We're stiff and sore from the deep-knee bend
And calisthenics without end.

We dropped in the Library for a book,
And saw cute posters in each nook.

We were inspired in History
By men who fought for liberty.

In Art we painted portraits new,
Or daubed away with brush and glue.

In English Class we diagramed;
For punctuation tests we crammed.

In Math Class we swung into action,

And spell and spell and spell some more.

We test our minds in Hygiene Class

In problems we know the world news well,
And learn to juggle income tax.

Dramatizing bits of "She Stoops to Conquer" is a perennial favorite in English Lit.

Steering, shifting, applying brakes
Are some of the skills that Driving takes.

Dramatics gives the chance to "emote."
In English Lit. there are poems to quote.

We're learning about our government now;
Miss Porter's the one who's showing us how.

Lunch in the "cafe" is quite a scramble;
To grab a table is just a gamble.

Voice and tense and conjugation
Are part of Latin recitation.

While Baker stands and counts the rhythm,
We do the exercises with 'im.

On August 12th of '49
Thirty-five students felt just fine;

In spite of summer's wilting heat,
They'd won a record hard to beat.

In Harding's library they did wait
To keep a long expected date.

It was the night of graduation,
And each was filled with quiet elation.

Crimson and gray were the colors they chose;
Their class flower was the lovely red rose.

Harding Commencement got under way.

The theme of the program was to be
"At the Crossroads of the Century."

One hundred fifty-eight looked bright
In caps and gowns of green and white.

The flower which these students chose
Was the gardenia, 'stead of the rose.

"Success is not," was their proud cry
"What you do, but how you try."

MRS. KATHRYN McCURDY and DONALD FUSSELMAN
Sponsors

Secretaries on their toes
Took attendance in 16 rows.

Tickets, Echoes, and Class fees?
Money doesn't grow on trees!

Swapping pictures was such fun;
Bought 200, kept but one.

Try-outs, meetings, every night—
Books and homework pushed from sight.

Senior play and class night too
Brought practices and much to do.

Two ninety-seven gowns to fit.
Sponsors nearly lost their wit.

Invitations without end—
Farewell luncheons to attend.

JOAN MacPHERSON—(Not graduating)

The June Class presented George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Arms and the Man," May 19 and 20.

REAR— B. Harrell (Soldier), A. Brant (Sergius), C. Yelton (Bluntschli), E. Zofko (Soldier), R. Potter (Soldier).

ROW TWO—B. Herst (Village Girl), I. Beleny (Village Girl), J. Kuhn (Raina Petkoff), N. Marowitz (Catherine Petkoff), P. Lafferty (Village Girl).

FRONT—J. Maggiano (Colonel Petkoff), P. Wiger (Nicola), D. Johnston (Louka), J. Johnston (Captain of the Guards), K. Massar (Soldier).

CENTER LEFT—12A float boosts the Three Mill Levy in the school parade.

BOTTOM RIGHT—As J. Ylisela is about to knock out the Canton Bulldog, R. Robison, MC of the 12A Rally, smiles approval. Rally was held at Harris-Warren Theatre.

B. Scott, Queen of 1950 January Prom, is congratulated by Mr. Mollenkopf.

"Over the Rainbow" the January Prom couples discovered castles, love-birds, and pink trees.

Stocking feet and a quarter were the admission price to the Sock Dance sponsored after the Massillon game by the 12B Class.

Commencement held in the Stadium for the first time, June, 1949.

Class of 1951

Football programs by the score;
"Sketch Book" too was quite a chore.

Lil Abner and Moonbeam MacSwine
Made their Junior Mix just fine.

Their Mansfield Rally was the best;
It filled our stadium with zest.

Who's the class with all this force?

* January; † June

Class of 1952

We wandered about with a puzzled gaze—
Room numbers and schedules were one jumbled maze.

The 10A-B Party was our first affair;
There, valentine favors were found everywhere.

Huge books and homework seemed very new;
They descended upon us, but we plowed right through.

When sponsors and officers joined the throng,
It helped us to feel that we belonged.

A "mixer" pairs off the couples for the next dance at the 10A-10B Party.

Spring Festival

Betty Seem adds the finishing touch as she is about to leave for the annual Junior Class Festival, over which she will reign. Betty's friendly smile and peppy spirit won her a position on the Harding Cheerleaders Squad.

"I crown you, Betty Seem, Queen of the Spring Festival," pronounces R. Anderson, President of Student Body, at the coronation ceremonies in 1949. B. Severson and D. Maloney are the attendants. M. Lotz and R. Robison, Junior Class Presidents, watch attentively.

Homecoming

The cameraman caught Queen Olga Benetis and her escort, Bert Clark, arriving at the Homecoming Dance. The brunette beauty served her class as treasurer. Olga was also elected City Treasurer of Storer City at Buckeye Girls' State last summer.

Queen O. Benetis is crowned by E. Zofko, Lettermen Prexie, at the Homecoming Dance. Attendants B. Verbosky and B. Severson are escorted by R. Robison, President of 12A Class, and M. Lotz, Student Council President.

Y-Teen Formal

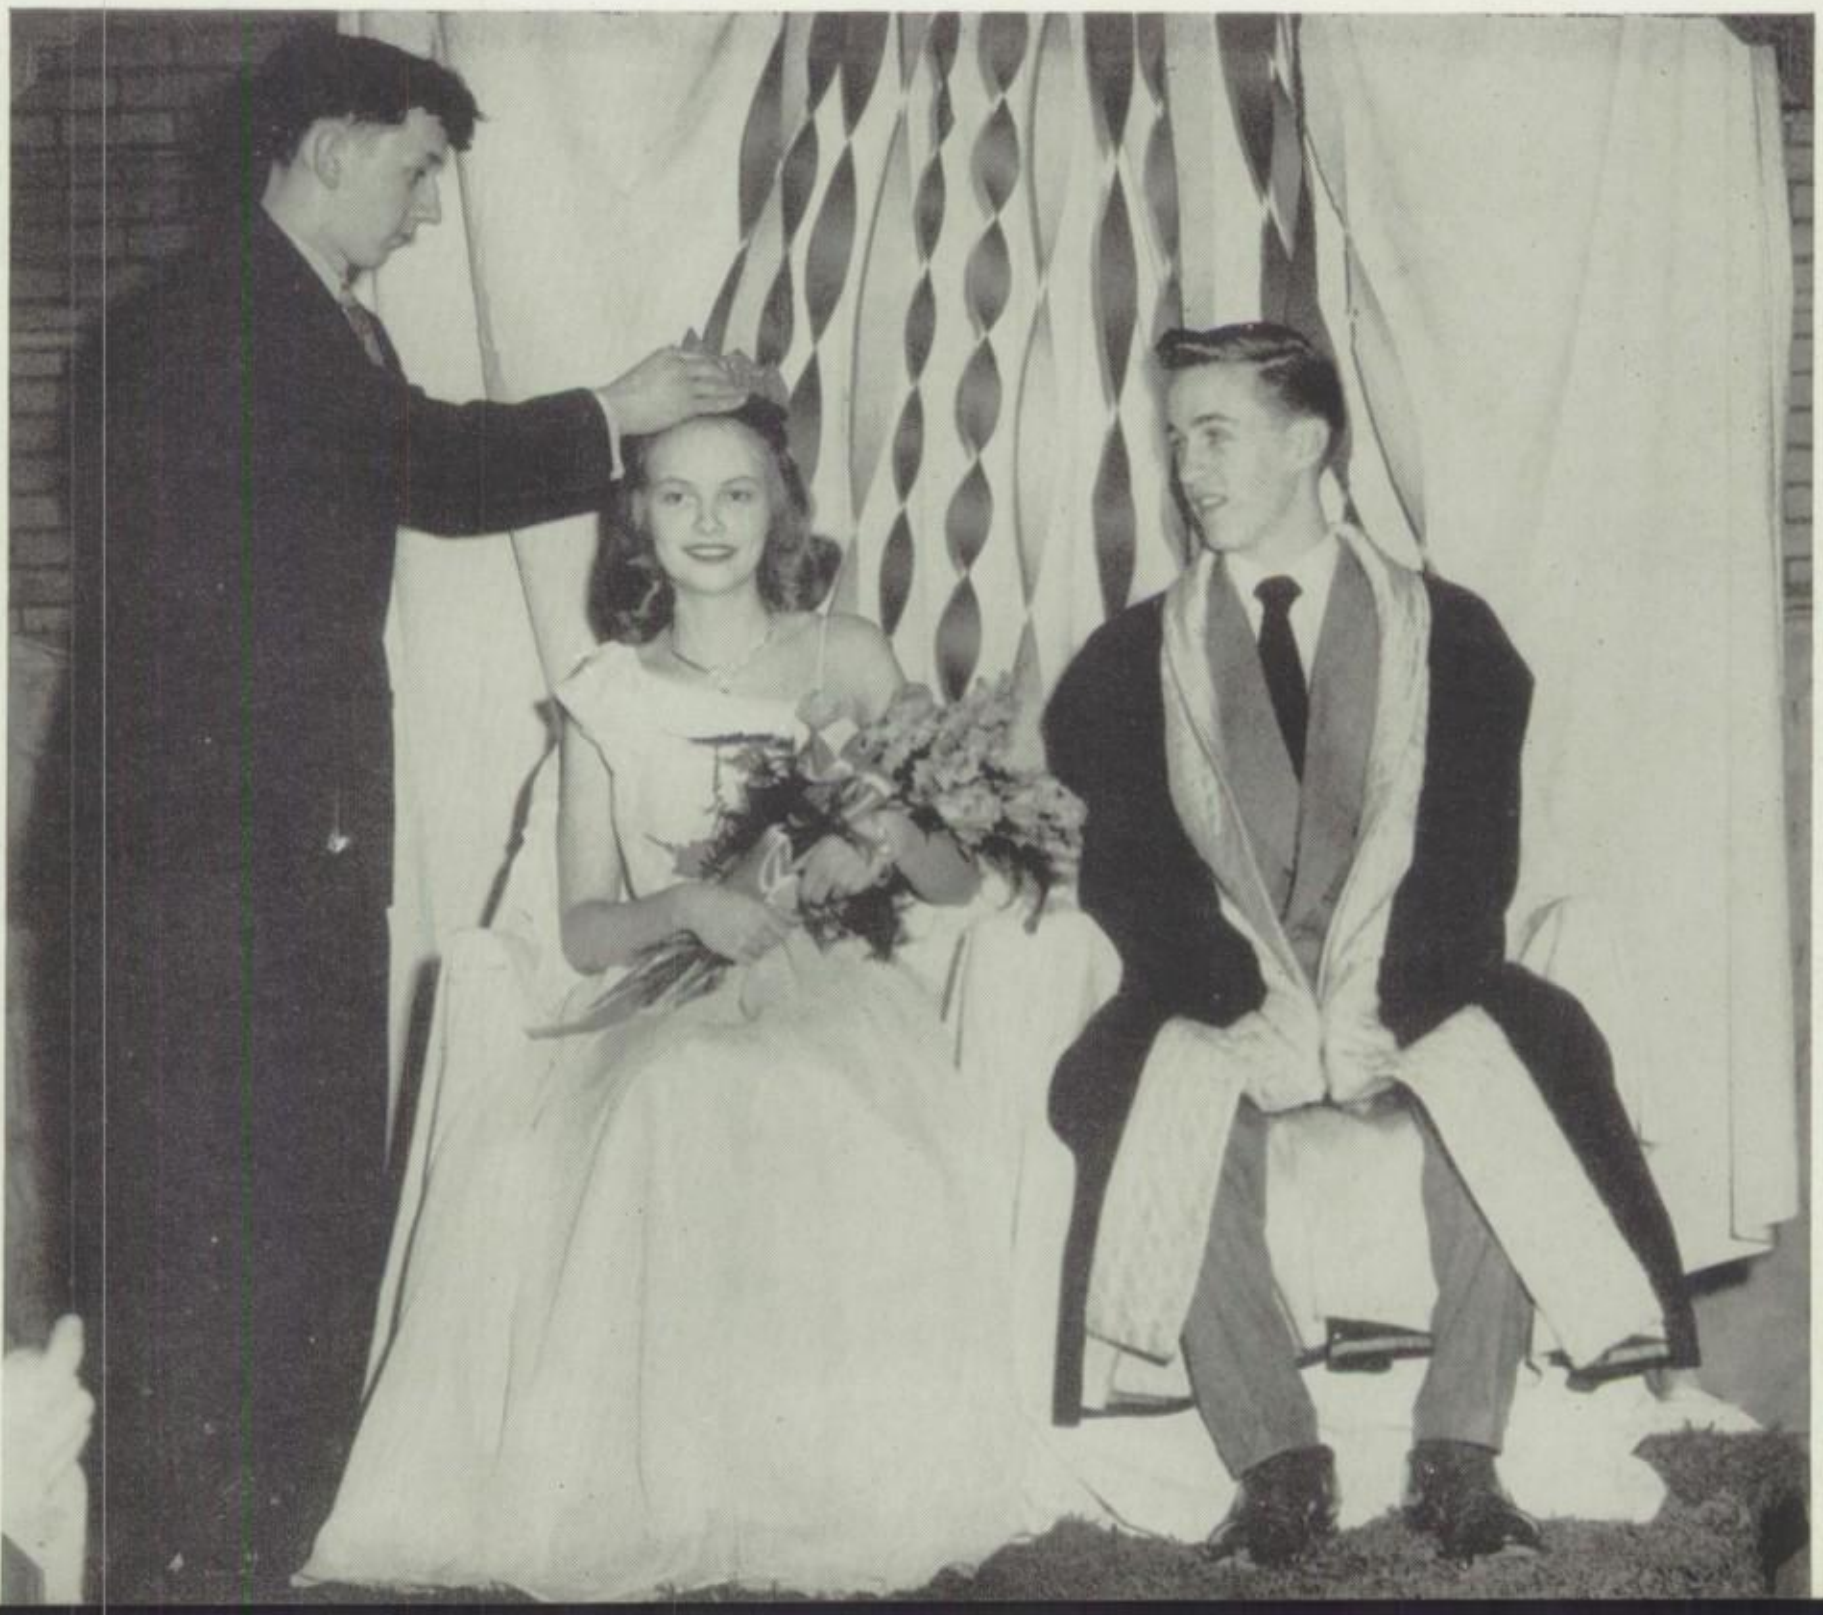
Dolling up for the Formal is something special in any Y-Teen's life. Marie Zigmont is a good sport to let us picture her in the grooming process for her big night. (Not that this outdoor type of attractive blonde needs make-up.) At the dance Marie whirled around the lighted Christmas tree as gaily as she cuts figure-eights on ice-skates, her favorite winter pastime.

M. Zigmont smiles graciously as C. Fried, President of Y-Teens, crowns her Queen of the Candy Cane Capers at the Christmas Formal. Girls elected by the Y-Teens to be members of the royal court are S. DeNunzio, B. Scott, D. Lardis, and M. Ritter.

Mardi Gras

After the coronation ceremony, Regina Doris Maloney and Rex Dennis Pardee step lightly. At the Mardi Gras floor-show, Dennis showed his skill on the ivories, but he's best known at Harding for his athletic prowess. Active in many clubs, Doris devotes much time to her job as president of Twelfth Grade Y-Teens.

K. Massar, Vice President of Student Body, places the crown on Regina D. Maloney. D. Pardee is Rex of the Eighteenth Annual Mardi Gras. The French and Spanish Departments sponsor this affair.



Christmas Holiday

Miss Mary Christmas and Hap Holiday smile through a wreath of holly as they convey the season's greetings to all. Betty Seem's beauty was also recognized by her classmates who chose her best-looking senior girl. Joe Stankewich was last year's Rex of the Mardi Gras. He excelled at Harding in varsity athletics.

Captain William Angell of Capital Airlines selected B. Seem as Mary Christmas for the special High Life holiday edition this year. Airline Hostess, Miss Doris Frank, chose from the many photographs the handsome physiognomy of J. Stankewich to be Hap Holiday. In the picture, runners-up, B. Williams and J. Farah, flank Joe and Betty.

Sports events

Pigskin Parade

Coach Chuck Riffle, Harding's new mentor, guided the Warren Eleven through some of the toughest competition in Ohio and Pennsylvania. He used the two-platoon system to good advantage throughout the season. Riffle's first year at Harding ended with a record of 3 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. In the newly formed Ohio Scholastic Conference, the Panthers inhabited the cellar with a record of 4 losses, no wins, and 1 tie.

After sneaking by Collinwood 14-13 for the first game of the season, Harding struggled through six successive defeats until a 26-6 win over Erie Academy snapped the losing ways. A 7-7 tie with Toledo Waite ended the regular season. For the first time since 1945 Warren squared off against Niles. On Thanksgiving Day the Panthers thoroughly routed their age-old rivals 21-7 to end the first eleven-game season in Harding's history since 1934.

Head Coach C. Riffle and assistants, D. Baker, L. Kemp and E. Campbell, plan some special tactics.

Warren — 14 Collinwood — 13

The Panthers greeted Coach Riffle with a victory for his debut by squeezing out a 14-13 win over Collinwood. George, right guard, provided the margin of success by place-kicking both extra points. The game was one of the most stirring passing duels ever witnessed by Warren fans. The Panthers completed 12 of 19 aerials; Collinwood connected for 9 of 25. The Red and White rallied twice to erase their rivals' lead. Gear accounted for the first Warren TD when he slipped through the Railroaders' defense for 6 yards. The second Harding marker came when Smith cracked over from the five.

Warren — 0 Canton McKinley — 45

A four-touchdown spree in the second quarter featured this game as the Bulldogs chewed the Panthers to the tune of 45-0. Mariano, McKinley's All-Ohio halfback, accounted for 3 TD's. Quarterback Robison connected for 5 out of 5 passes for Warren, but none went for that "ever lovin' half dozen." Warren was never able to start a sustained drive of any kind. Only once did the Red and White get past the Canton 38 yard line, and that was in the first quarter when the Rifflemen reached the 10-yard stripe. It was then that George tried an unsuccessful field goal.

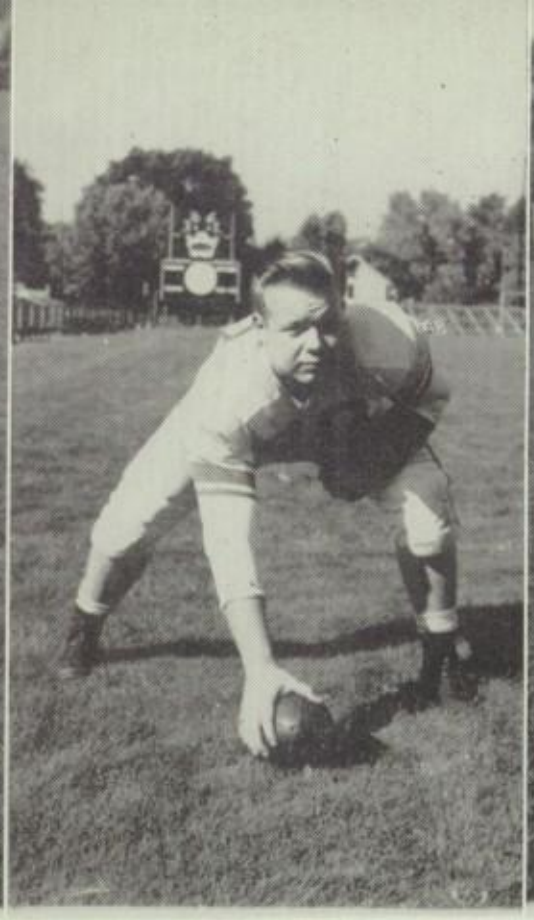
Warren — 6 Erie Prep — 20

Attempting to rebound from the 45-0 drubbing laid on by Canton McKinley, Harding proved too eager and contracted "fumbilitis." Panther fumbles spiked repeated goalward drives, and Erie Prep came out on top 20-6. Pardee saved a whitewashing for Warren when he skirted left end for 35 yards in the last period. The Rifflemen had drives foiled in each quarter by their losing possession of the ball 6 times in 8 fumbles. Warren outrushed Erie on the ground, but only 1 of 9 passes was completed by the Red and White.

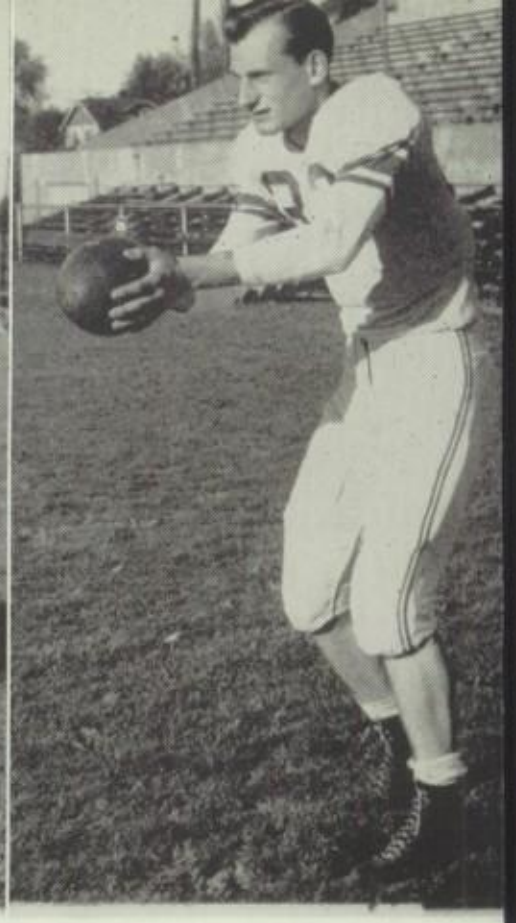
Managers F. Merolla, J. Baker, K. Lenhart, B. Berish, and B. Brekoski declare that going on trips with the team well repays them for their hard work.

Bill Swope, left tackle, hit the line with the same enthusiasm he tackled twelve-inch hot-dogs.

John De Capito, left guard, showed the big fellows how it was done. If "Little John" couldn't get through them, he'd go under them.



Jim Ylisela, center, was a pillar of strength before a back injury caught up with him at mid-season.



Harold Allard, fullback, surprised the entire squad when he successfully shifted from the line to his backfield post.

Warren — 0 Mansfield — 20

The Mansfield Tygers, mythical Ohio State Champs, blanked the Harding gridders 20-0 to run the Warren losing streak to 3 straight. Warren had no clear opportunity to score, for Mansfield never faltered. Time after time Quarterback Robison was smothered before he could even attempt to pass. Warren's only scoring threat came when Halfback Stankewich made a juggling pass interception at the Tygers' 38 and battled his way to the 20. The Panther drive fizzled out, however, when, after 4 attempts, Warren failed to make the necessary yardage. In this game Guard Salvato suffered a broken leg which constituted a severe loss to the Warren team.

Warren — 6 Campbell Memorial — 18

Two touchdowns with less than 7 minutes to play broke a 6-6 tie and ruined the Homecoming game for the Panther rooters as Memorial topped Harding 18-6. Warren outplayed Campbell during the first half which ended with the score deadlocked at 6-6. Smith galloped over from the 4-yard line in the second period, but the Harding gridders folded late in the third quarter to blow the tie. The game was a typical Warren-Campbell struggle for the first 3 stanzas. Harding's improved offense and defense were heartening to Warren fans, but the lack of scoring punch resulted in the Red and White's fourth straight setback.

Warren — 6 Alliance — 26

A 6-0 lead assumed by Harding in the first period failed to hold up as the Alliance Aviators soared on to win 26-6. The reliable combination of Robison to Zofko accounted for the lone Panther marker. Coach Riffle's charges got off to another fast start and led Alliance until early in the second quarter. After their first TD, Warren players had only one more scoring opportunity — they opened a sizzling offense to close the third period with Alliance's leading 20-6, but their 47-yard drive ended at the Aviators' 10-yard line.

Bob James, right tackle, saw extensive service this year. Many a foe will remember his bruising tackles.

Paul Smith, fullback, was always good for gain in yardage, regardless of who blocked the way.

Ed Zofko, right end, was known for circus catches of passes. Enemy goal seekers had trouble getting around his end.

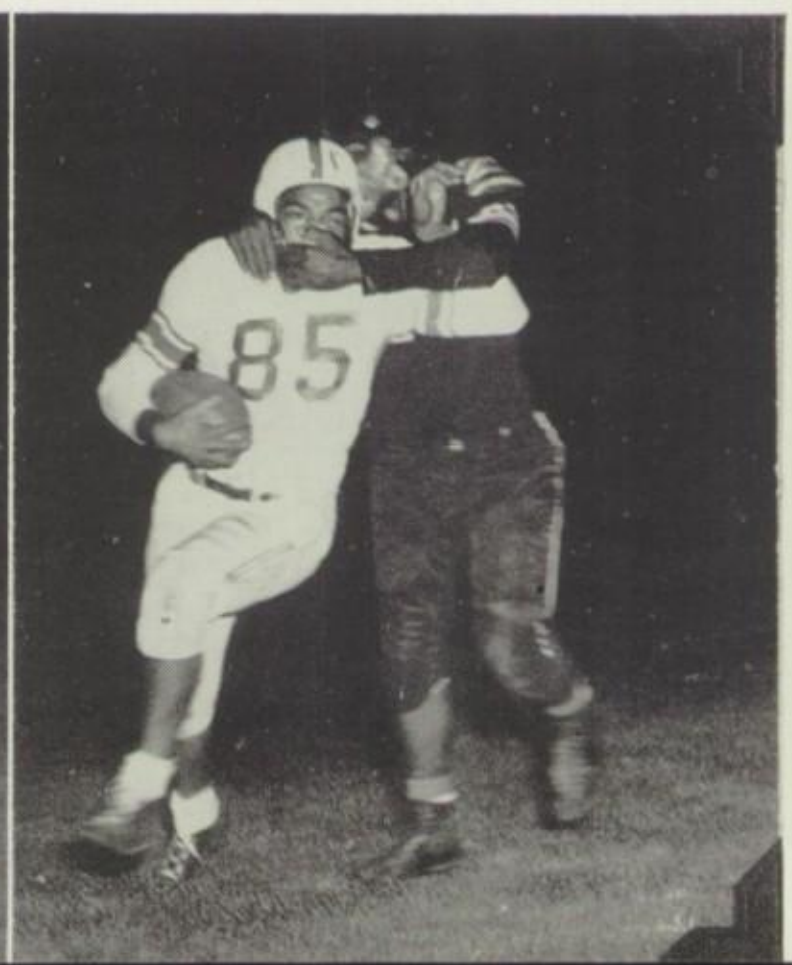
Joe Stankewich, right halfback, was noted for his job of line backer. On offense he excelled in broken field running.

Warren — 19 Massillon — 35

The Red and White gave the highly touted Massillon eleven quite a scare. Harding kept on the heels of the Tigers throughout the game, but a brace of lightning scoring thrusts by Massillon in the third period put the game on ice. Harding fought the heavily favored Stark County eleven on even terms during the first half, coming from behind to threaten the Tigers with a supposedly impossible 14-12 halftime score. Although Massillon's brilliance finally overpowered Warren, even the Tigers knew that they were playing against an inspired team. Continually, fast-charging Harding linemen threw Massillon back for humiliating losses totaling 57 yards.

"Going somewhere, big boy?" questions a Campbell Memorial player as P. Smith pours on the coal.

"No chance to answer that," thinks Smith as he gets the heavy hand.



Gritting his teeth, L. Reed prepares to plough through a Collinwood tackler as B. Swope (99) comes up to help block.

Like an octopus, a Collinwood player wraps his tentacles around E. Zofko.

Warren — 26 Erie Academy — 6

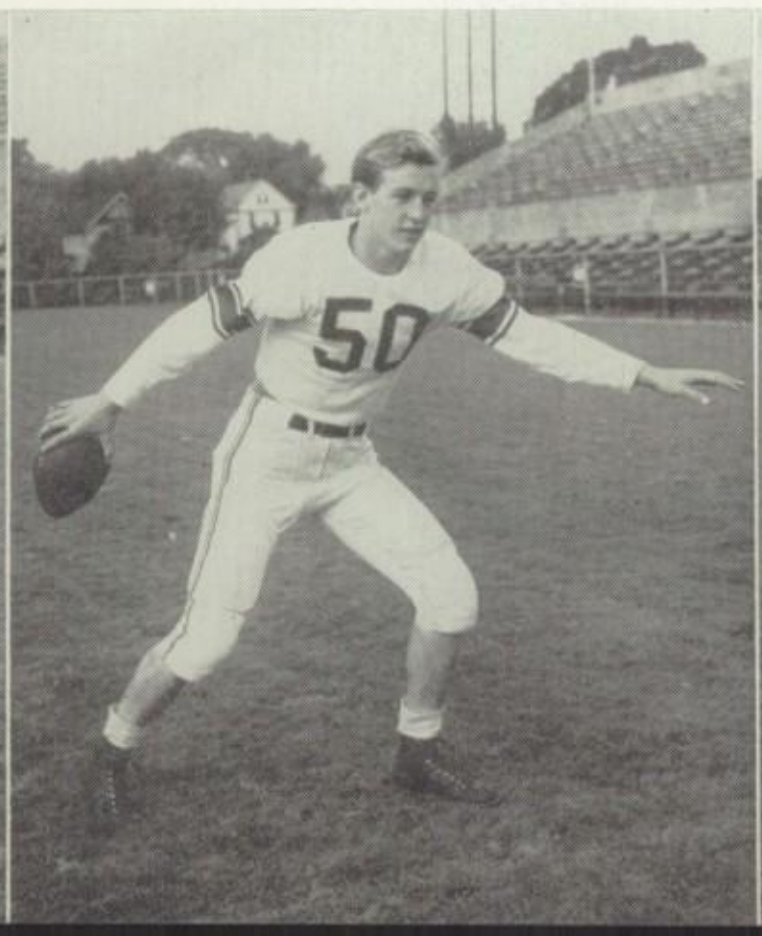
With only 25 seconds left to play, Stroup, sophomore quarterback, electrified the crowd with his sensational 102 yard runback of an intercepted Erie pass. It was the longest runback since Abe Williams' 109 yard gallop in the 1945 Niles game. The smallest crowd of the season—about 3,500 fans—watched the Panthers play their last home tilt and end a six-game losing streak. Riffle's crew never halted after grabbing a 7-0 lead with little more than two minutes gone in the first quarter. Warren's gridders held a 14-6 half-time lead and clinched their second win with 2 fourth-period markers. Leigh, sophomore fullback, led the Red and White's highest scoring spree of the season with 2 six-pointers on sprints of 18 and 29 yards respectively.

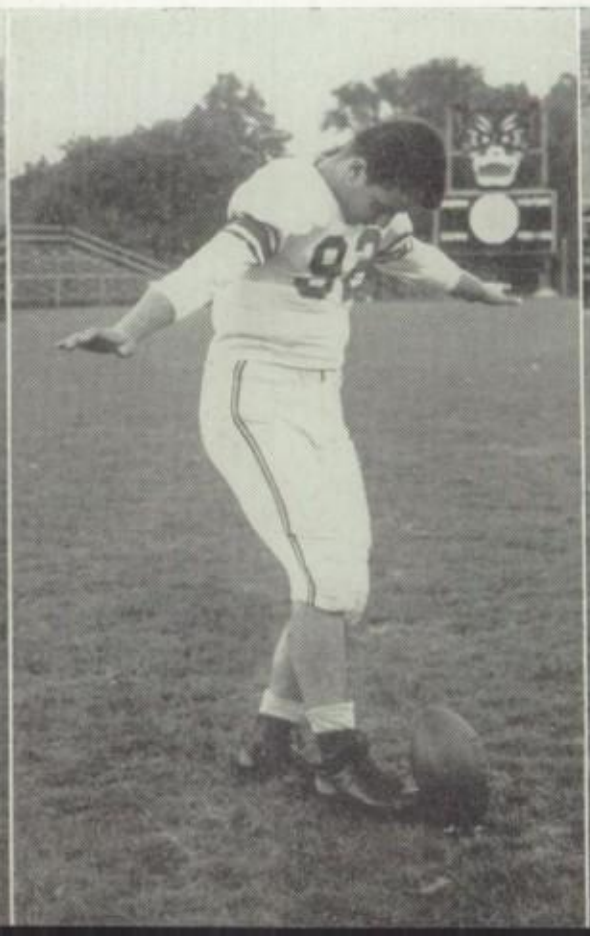
Howard Glover, left end, was speedy for his size. He was good at breaking up interference around his post.

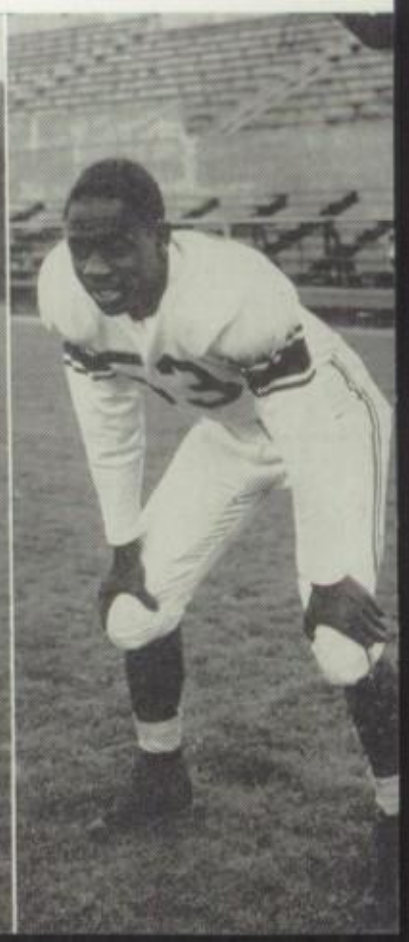
Dennis Pardee, left halfback, did some fancy kicking, passing, and running to make himself an all-around man.

John George, right guard, awed the fans with his high, wide fifty-yard kick-offs. He had that educated toe for the extra point after a touchdown.

Paul Willoughby, left halfback, showed plenty of speed. He burned up the turf in the Niles game.







The cold shoulder is laid on "Hub Dub" Mariano, sensational deaf-mute of Canton McKinley, by Panther's P. Smith.

"Not another one," yell the Warren fans, as Canton McKinley's Sam Parks struggles through for a touchdown.

Warren — 7 New Castle — 26

After two years of having their undefeated records ruined by Warren elevens, New Castle finally gained revenge by mauling the Panthers 26-7 in a hotly contested game that saw Warren receive 102 yards in penalties. The intense gridiron rivals fought on even terms for three periods. New Castle grabbed a 7-0 lead late in the first stanza, but Warren came right back in the second quarter to tie up the game. After a scoreless third quarter, the Red Hurricane hit Harding with full force and turned the game into a rout. Injuries to players on both teams followed nearly every play in the final three minutes, and fists flew on several occasions.

Warren — 7 Toledo Waite — 7

Although the Panthers outplayed Toledo Waite throughout the game, they were held to a 7-7 tie which dropped Harding to the bottom of the Ohio Scholastic Conference with a record of 0 wins, 4 losses, and John Zoba, right tackle, got into plenty of action which seasoned him for next year. John had a knack for recovering fumbles.

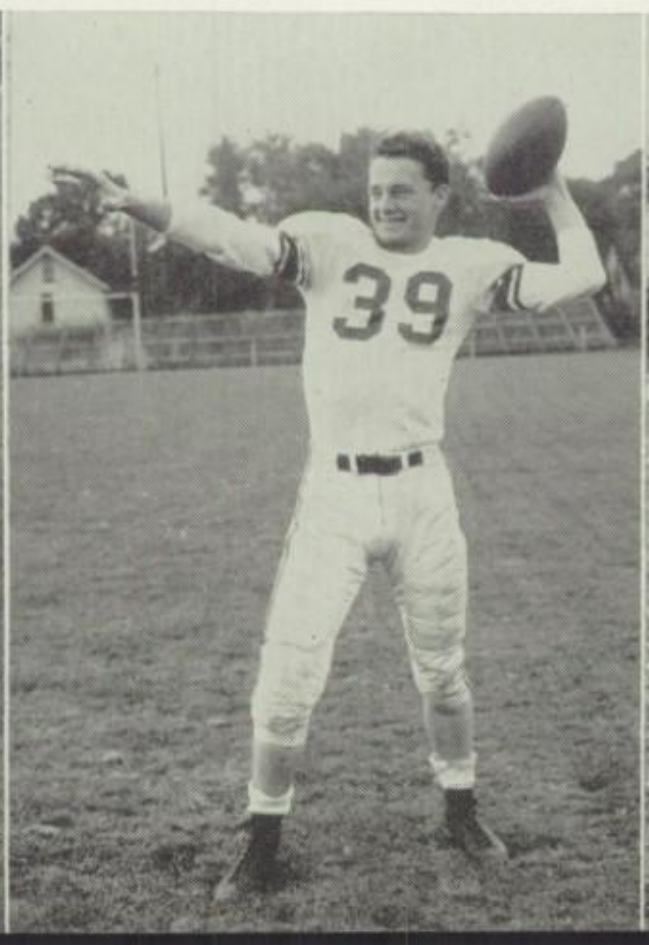
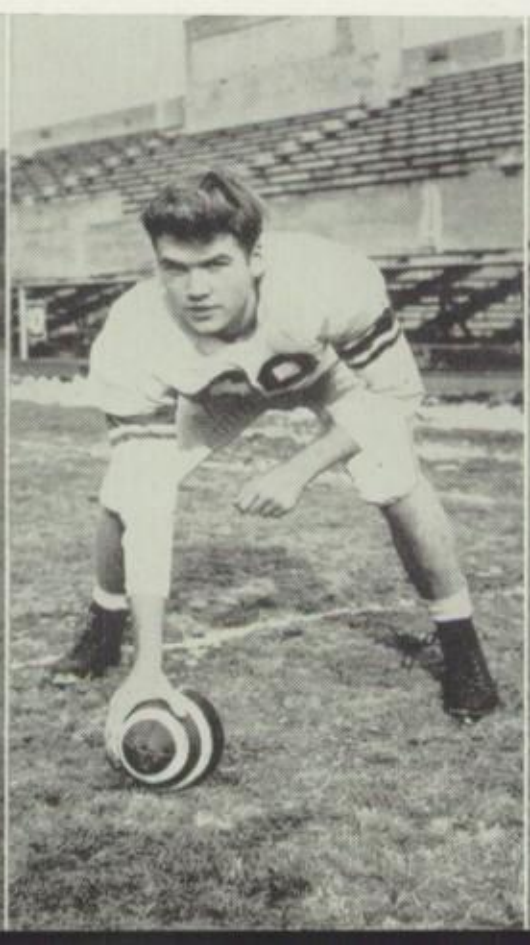
Ray Robison, quarterback, kept the air filled with passes, mostly completed. A knee injury hampered him throughout the season.

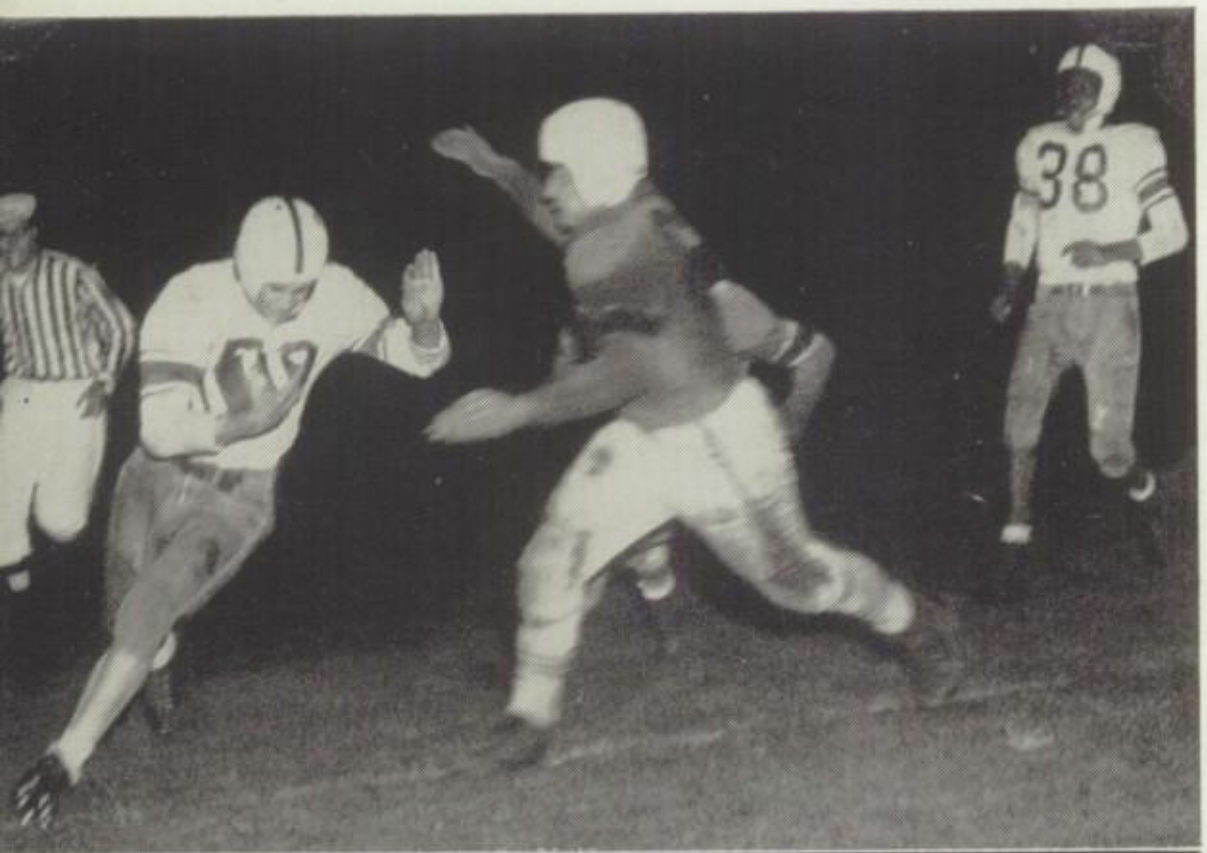


Bill James, center, was a skillful line backer. He rated honorable mention by "All-Ohio" for his outstanding play.



Curt Gear, right halfback, has two more years to keep up his splendid work in the backfield.

1 tie. Fullback Allard bucked over for the lone Panther TD. A dramatic but unsuccessful attempt for a field goal was made by Warren from the 16-yard line with only 16 seconds to play. The kick was blocked, and Warren's last hope of victory went up in smoke. Toledo's lone touchdown came on a series of passes early in the second frame. The Indians never threatened after this attack. Warren's line play was terrific—not only did the Harding forwards stop the Indians with a minus seven yards gained from scrimmage in the first period, but brought them to a minus five yards rushing in the third period.



D. Pardee speeds around end for a gain in the Massillon tilt.

The Warren squad applauds as J. George makes the extra point to total 26-6 over Erie Academy.

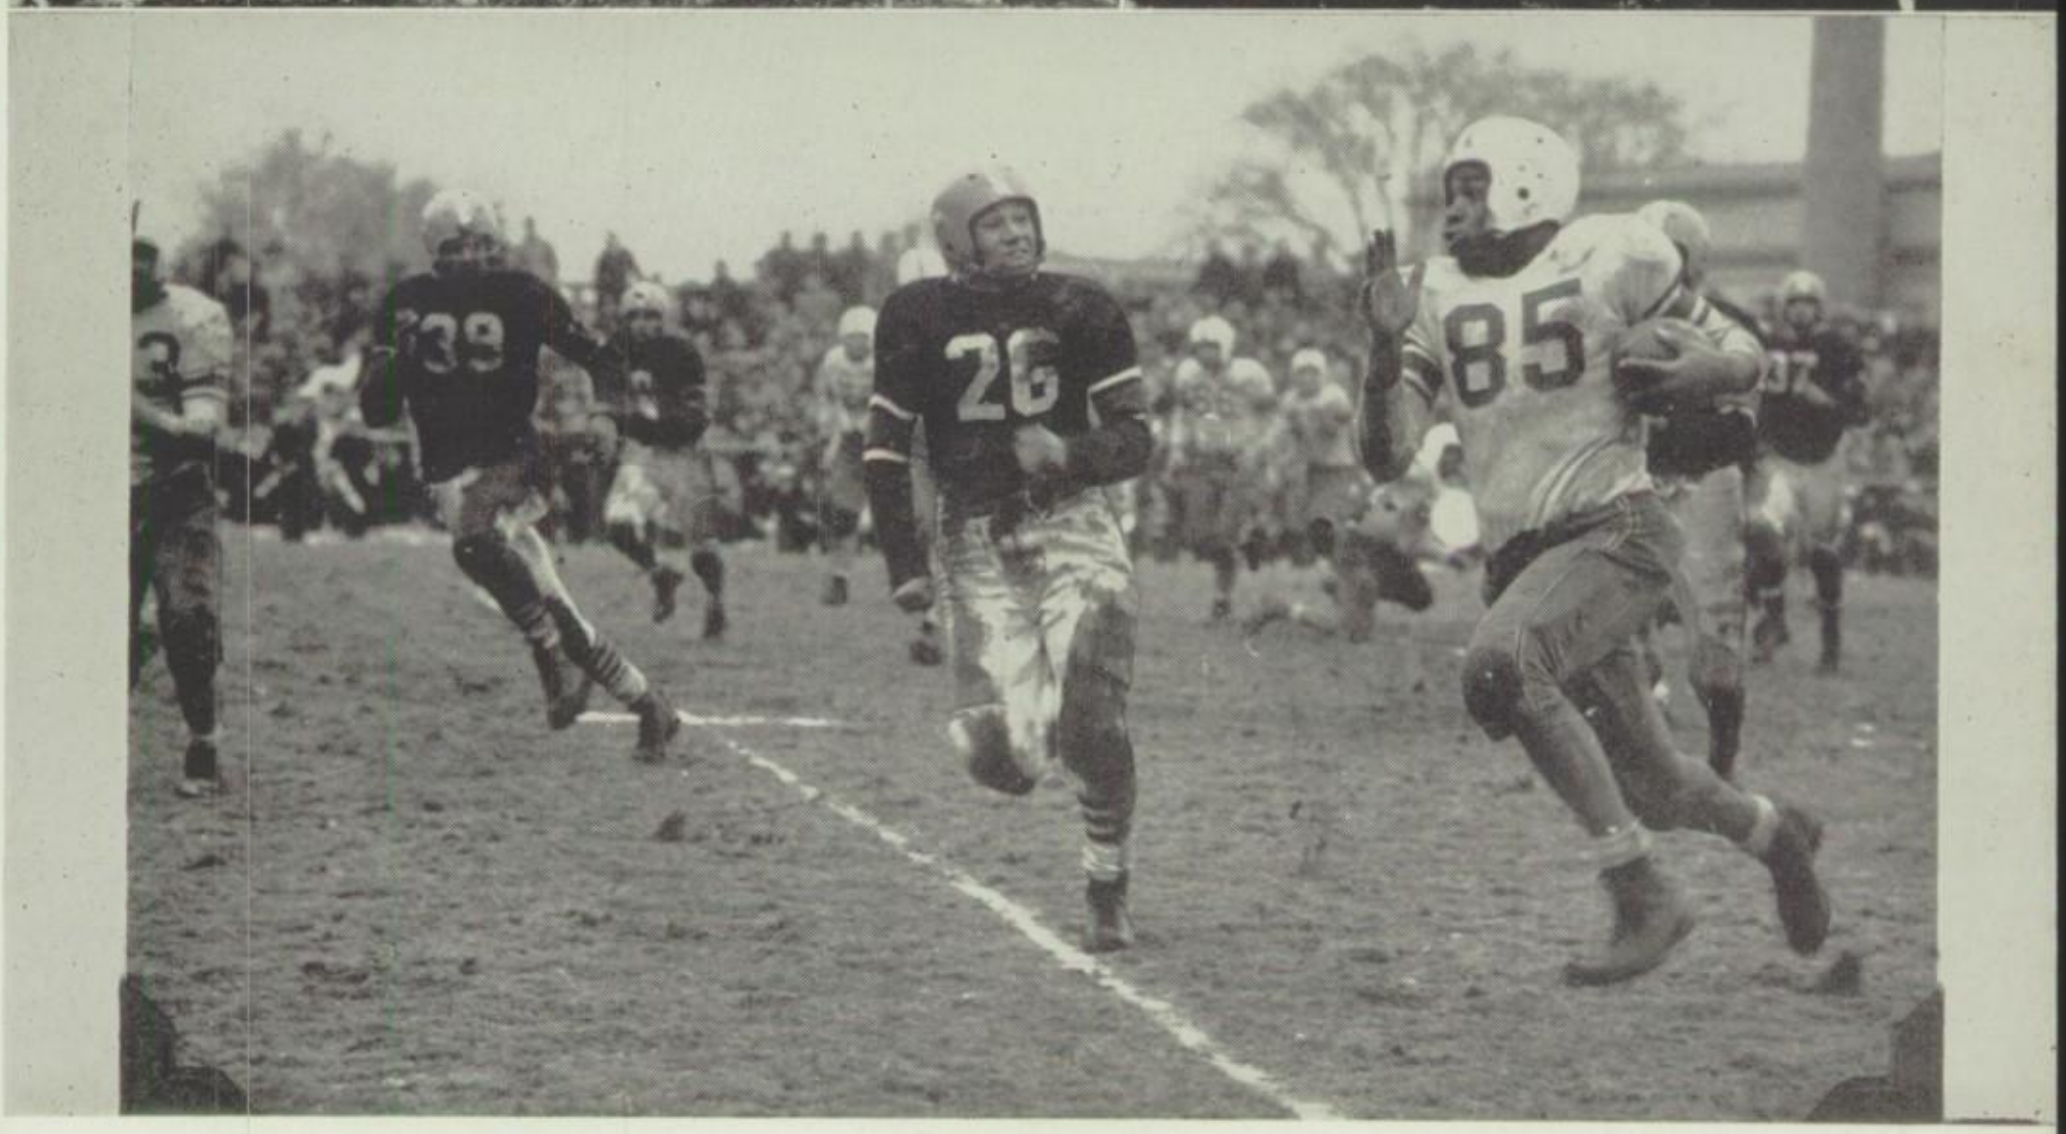
The Panther prodigies may well be proud of their undefeated season this year. Consisting of only Tenth Graders, they piled up a noteworthy record of 6 wins and a tie. Warren fans are happy to know these boys will be back for two more seasons.

Twice they walloped the Massillon Bulldogs, the second time by a passing attack that netted 3 touchdowns in the last few minutes of play. The Panther offspring finished the season with a rousing 47-0 romp over Struthers.

The Harding Cubs played a sparkling brand of ball and attracted huge crowds to the Saturday night tussles. Long runs and sensational pass completions left the fans gasping and hoping that such play will continue in the oncoming seasons.



Digging into that white stuff, G. Hudak and J. Lowery search for solid earth in preparation for the Niles Thanksgiving tussle.

Referee Scanlom stands ready for the fatal flip of the coin, as Niles-Warren captains give a warm hand-shake: Co-captains B. De Cristofero and J. P. Williams of Niles; Acting Captain R. Robison of Warren.

P. Smith eludes all tacklers as he chews up yardage in the Niles battle.

Warren — 21 Niles — 7

The Warren Panthers tore the Niles Red Dragons to shreds as they splashed their way to a 21-7 victory on a field that had been covered with two inches of snow the day before. The battle renewed athletic relations which had been severed in 1945. Halfback Willoughby cracked over from the five-yard line in the first quarter for the first tally. Quarterback Robison fired TD passes to Pardee and Willoughby in the second period to complete the scoring for Warren.

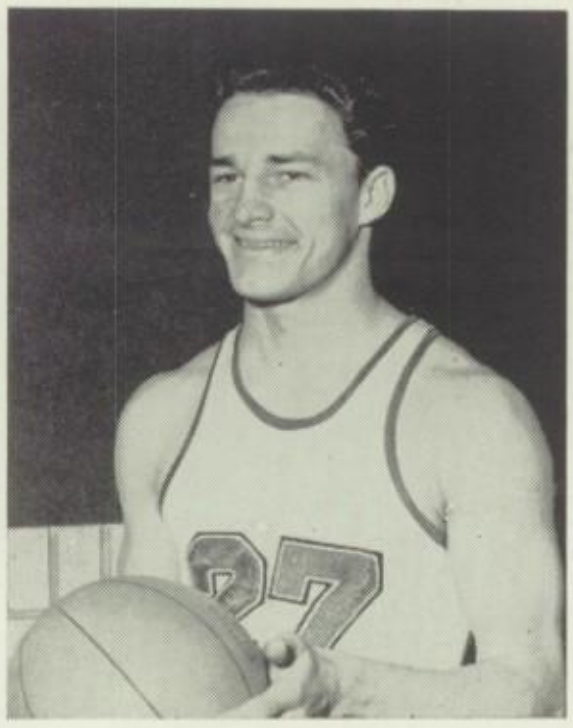
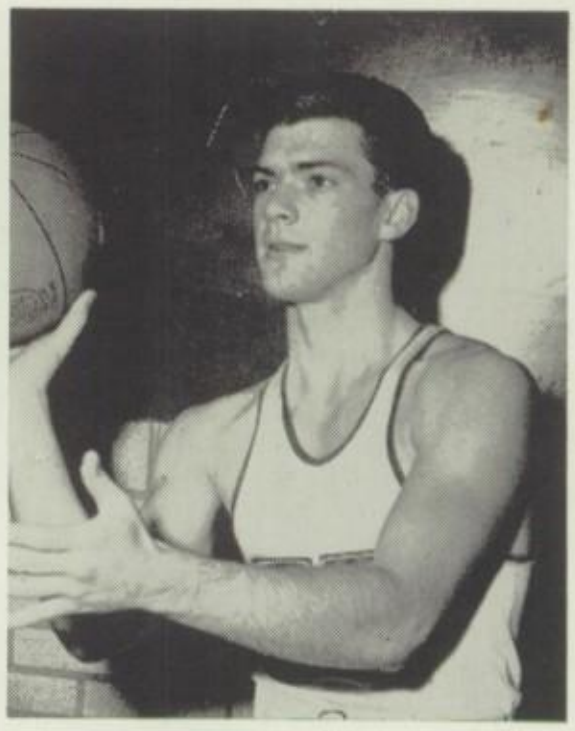
BOTTOM: Harding's peppy cheerleaders added color and zip to every varsity football and basketball game. Coach Wright's careful selection and training of the squad this year resulted in this smooth-working unit: R. Rufo, M. Jones, D. Palmer, D. Matyas, J. Cuccio.

Coach D. Lafferty piloted his charges through an up and down season.



Ray Robison*, senior guard, was forced out of action by a knee injury after two years of stellar service.



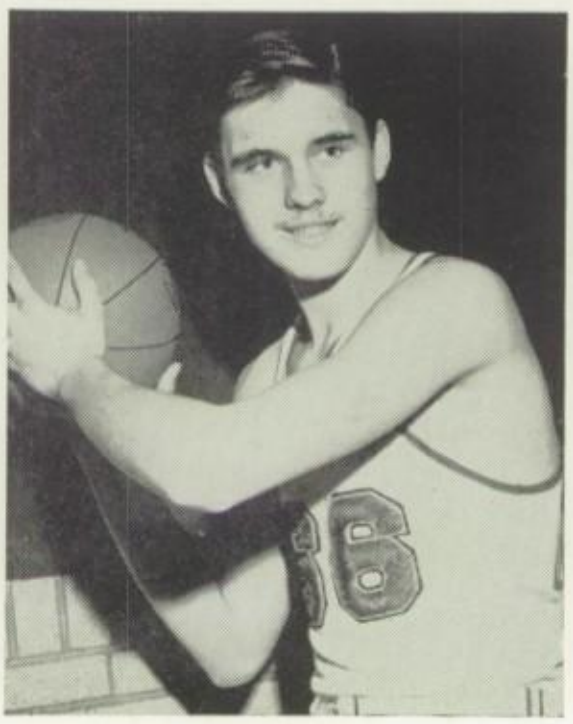
Joe Stankewich*, senior guard, was the play-maker of the quintet and a rough man on defense.

J. Beard and G. Pond, managers, took pride in giving the Panthers that well-groomed look.

Harding Hoopsters

The Red and White pulled a repeat performance on last year's score books as they chalked up a 10 won-10 lost regular season record. The Warren quintet combined height and speed into a smooth-working offensive machine—their strong point throughout the year. They held their own in the scoring department, but shoddy defensive play usually spelled the margins of defeat. Brightest spot of the year came when the Panthers rolled up four straight wins during the mid-season. This was balanced, however, by a dismal series of losses in the last four games. In the N. E. O. Tournament, Harding hardwooders advanced to the semi-finals where they were eliminated by Youngstown Rayen.

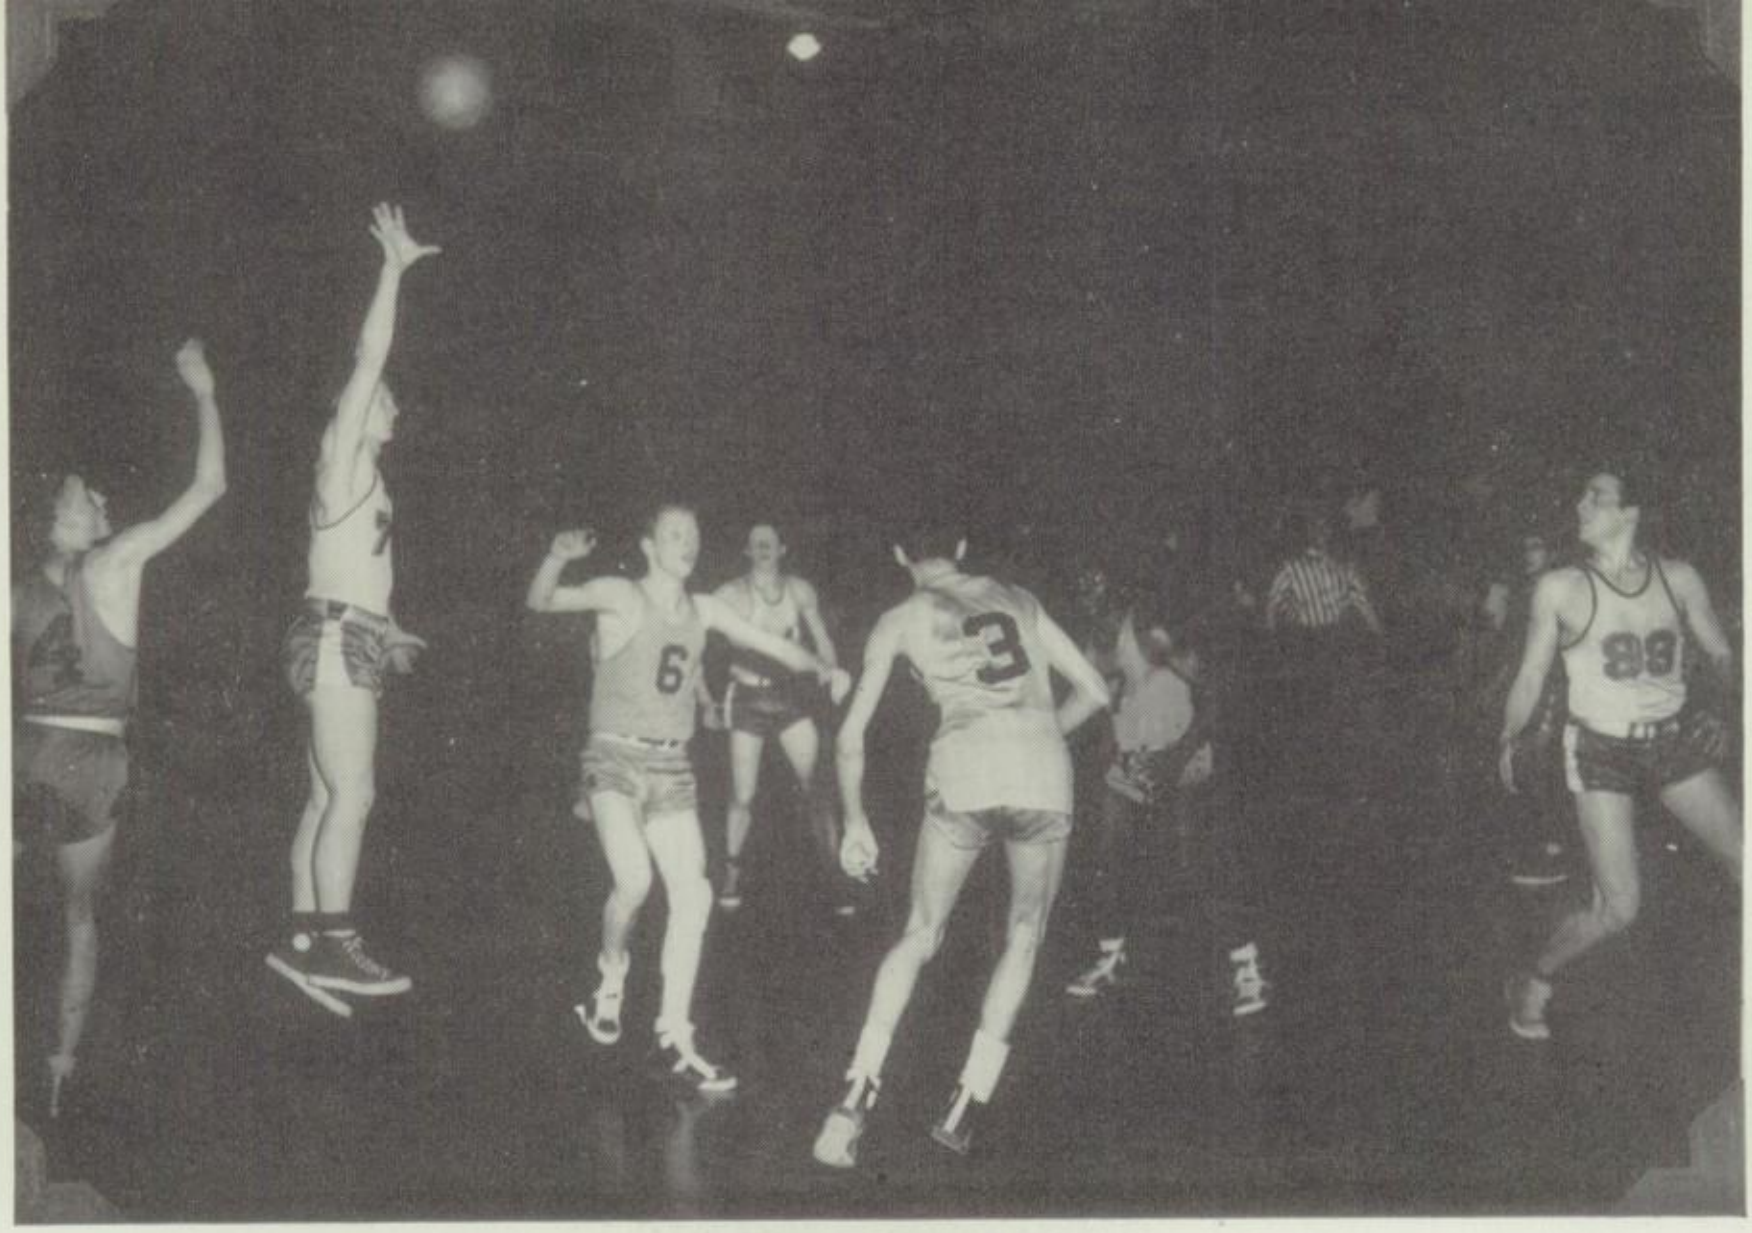
Jim Lewis*, senior forward, was consistently good for two points when he cut loose with that trusty left hand.



Myron Lotz*, senior center, specialized on the one-hander from the corner and had an eye for rebounds.

Dennis Pardee, senior guard, was noted for his fast and furious dribbling and one-hand push-shots.

* Two-year lettermen awarded gold basketball.



E. Zofko lets fly in Warren's upset victory over Youngstown Rayen. Coming up in the background are Harding men, J. Lewis and A. Jones.

WARREN—59 CLEVELAND HOLY NAME—45

The Panthers blew the lid off the 1949-50 season with a rousing 59-45 victory over Cleveland Holy Name. Lewis sank 22 points to lead the attack. The Red and White cagers never trailed, for they dropped in goals from all angles.

WARREN—41 CLEVELAND HEIGHTS—48

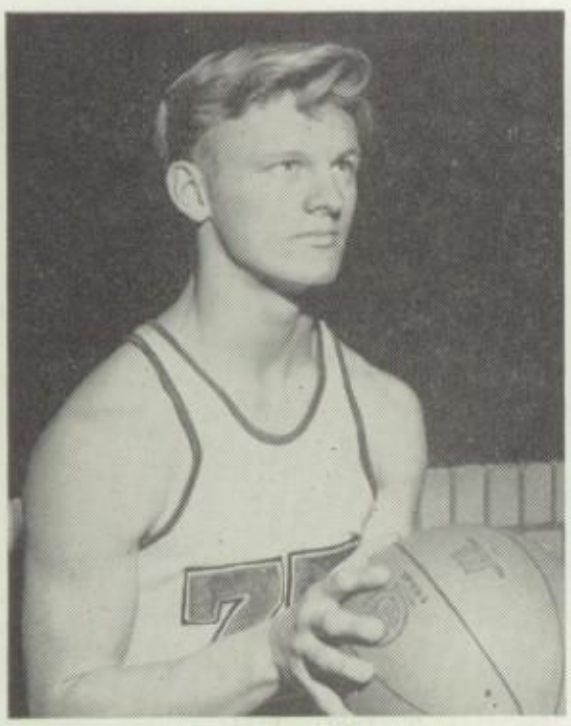
Warren players displayed a shabby offense and defense as they bowed to Cleveland Heights 48-41. Harding High matched goals with the Heights from the field but lost the game on foul shots. This marked the third successive year the Panthers have lost to the Cleveland five.

Ed Zofko*, senior forward, was known for his set shots from halfway out.

Harold Allard*, senior guard, developed speed and had plenty of spring and jump.

Art Jones*, senior center, used his 6′ 4″ to good advantage under both backboards.

*Two-year lettermen awarded gold basketball.



WARREN—31 FARRELL—38

The Panther hoopsters collected most of their 31 points from the foul stripe, but the 14 charity tosses they missed in 31 tries kept them from overwhelming a scrappy Steeler quintet. A total of 50 personal fouls was called, and scoring by field goals became a rarity.

WARREN—37 ASHTABULA HARBOR—26

Quite a tussle was staged in the Harbor's peanut-sized gym, but the Harding team came out on top 37-26. After trailing for 5 minutes of the first period, the Panthers swept ahead and kept the lead.

WARREN—47 AKRON KENMORE—55

Kenmore, paced by the brilliant play of Wally Lovelace, who hit the hoop for 26 points, pulled away from the Panthers in the final period to hand them a 55-47 setback. The tempo of the game was furious, with the score tied at the end of each of the first 3 periods.

WARREN—49 SHAKER HEIGHTS—35

After trailing for most of the game, Harding cagers forged ahead of the Shaker Heights squad late in the third period. They then held the Heights scoreless for the first 6 minutes of the fourth quarter to clinch a 49-35 victory.

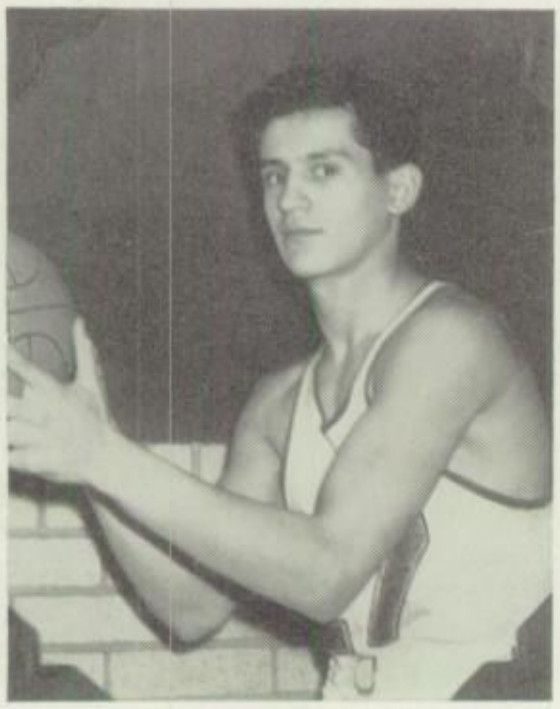
WARREN—65 CANTON LEHMAN—55

A capacity crowd saw the Panthers turn in their most sparkling performance of the season as they outscored a scrappy Canton outfit 65-55. After leading by 7 or 8 points during most of the game, the Panthers saw their lead dwindle to 3 points with 1 minute to go. A dazzling volley of baskets netted Warren 7 points in the last 35 seconds to sew up the victory.

WARREN—44 GIRARD—34

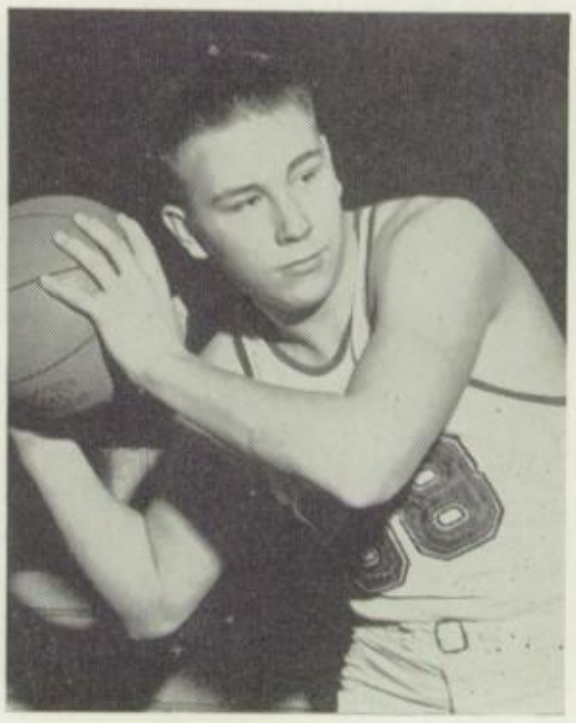
Making it 3 in a row, Harding scored 8 points in the last 25 seconds to down a Girard team that battled all the way. The Red and White shrank to a measly 2 points as the clock was running out, but the last-minute spree put the game on ice.

John Vlad, junior guard, gave the varsity a boost when he moved up from Reserves at mid-year.



Bob Frantz, junior guard, earned a starting berth after the turnover at mid-season.

Ronny Santti, junior center, was seasoned on the Reserve squad for next year's varsity.



WARREN—58 CANTON SOUTH—34

The Panthers got sweet revenge for previous years' defeats by Canton South as they blasted out a 58-34 victory. Jones and Lewis, with 22 points each, led the high scoring rout. The Laffertymen displayed unerring accuracy and a dazzling offense.

WARREN—52 CANTON McKINLEY—54

The Bulldogs never knew what hit them as the Panthers cut loose an amazing offensive in the fourth quarter, good for 27 points. This gained Harding a 50-50 tie at the gun which threw the game into an overtime. After the overtime smoke had cleared away, Canton was on the better side of a 54-52 score.

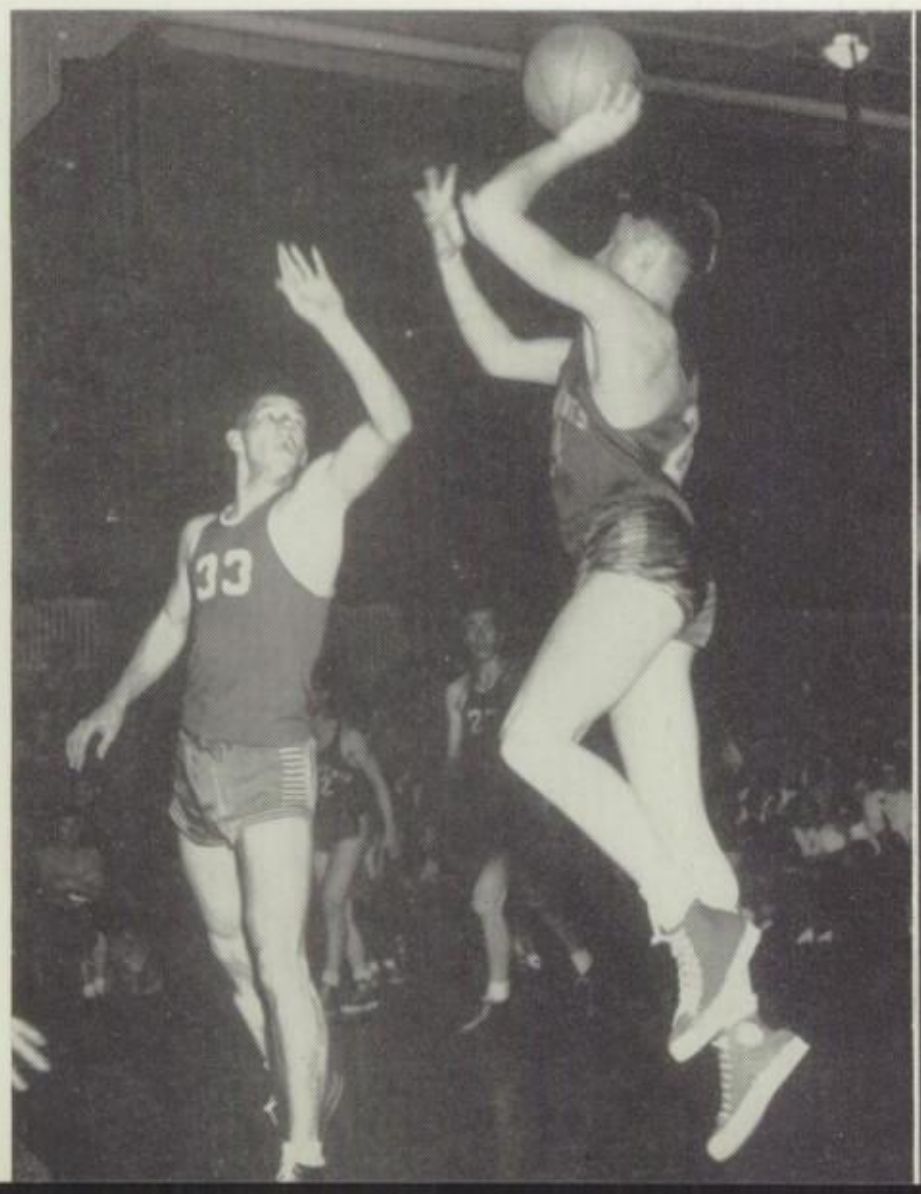
WARREN—46 SALEM—43

The Warren quintet found it tough going at Salem as they were hard pressed to squeeze out a victory. After trailing 14-2 early in the first quarter, the Panthers bounced back into the lead in the second frame. With 25 seconds left in the game, Salem forged within 2 points of the Harding cagers. Some fancy controlling of the ball by the Panthers staved off the Quakers' rally.

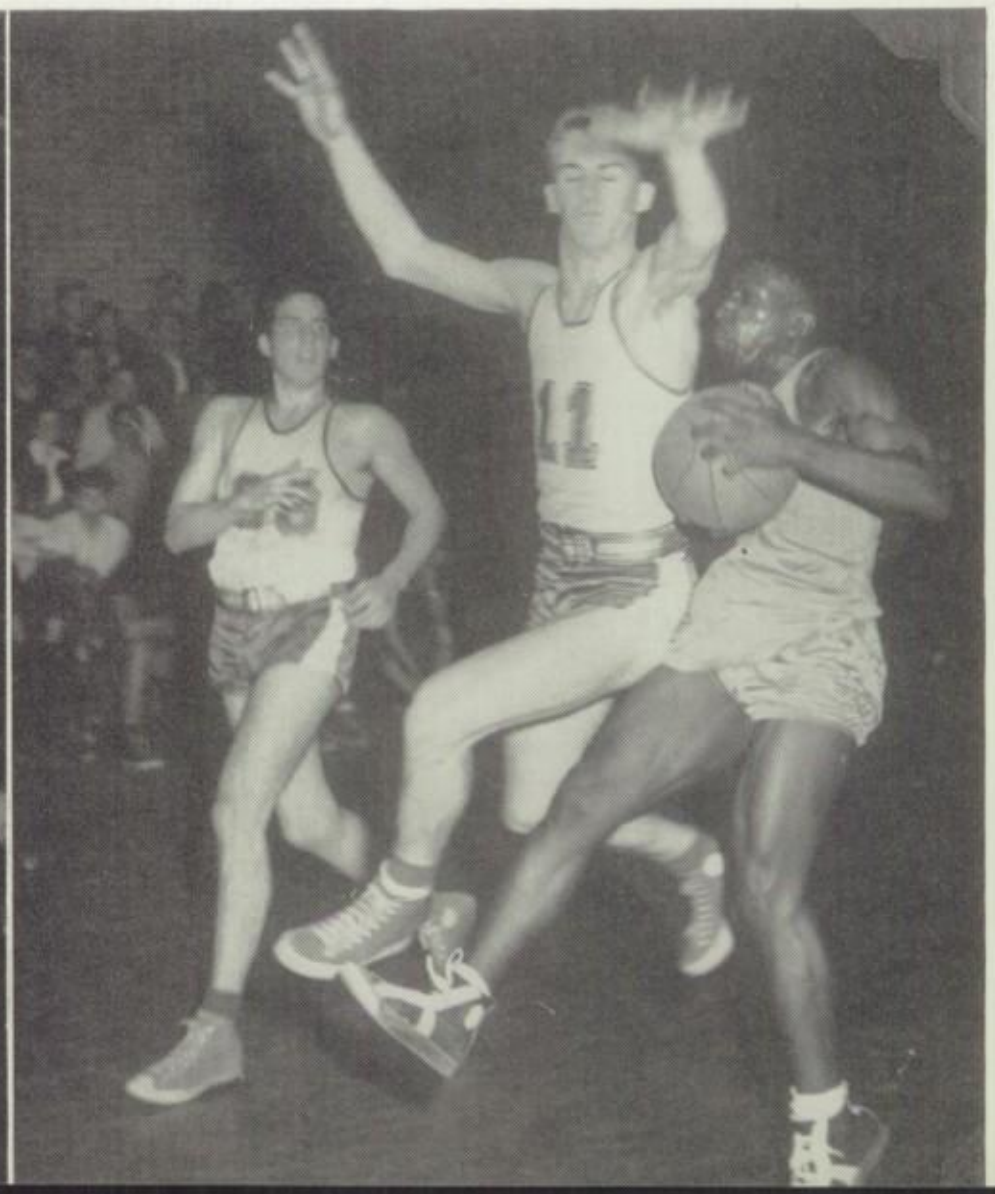
WARREN—42 EAST LIVERPOOL—45

East Liverpool kept one jump ahead of the Panthers throughout the game to rack up a 45-42 win. Warren players spoiled their chance to narrow the Potters' 44-40 advantage in the last 2 minutes of play when they missed 4 of 5 foul shots. Allard and Stankewich, playing their last home game, turned in outstanding performances.

J. Lewis adds another basket to Warren's rout of Holy Name.



Throttled, "Boots" Burney of Rayen finds D. Pardee inconveniently in the way of the basket.



"Just keep your heads," advises Coach Lafferty, as the Panthers gather for a "brain and bandage" session. J. Lewis, D. Pardee, M. Lotz, J. Stankewich, and E. Zofko watch "Laff" wrap H. Allard's weak ankle.

"Listenski, Comrades," shouts Joe Stalin Crawford, as he plugs the Junior Classes' novel basketball "Sketchbook." B. James and C. Titus translate the windy oration.

WARREN—60 CANTON TIMKEN—42

All the Panthers joined in the scoring as Warren smashed Timken 60-42, thus winding up the semester with an 8-5 record. Robison, who was forced out of action by an injury in the second game of the season, returned to play his last high school game.

WARREN—47 BARBERTON—71

The bottom fell out of the Warren five's defense in the second half as Barberton turned a slow 29-26 halftime lead into a 71-47 rout. The Magics displayed a dazzling fast-break offensive that overpowered Harding completely.

WARREN—51 YOUNGSTOWN RAYEN—48

The Panthers hopped to an early start and never trailed as they edged an aroused Rayen team, winners of the Youngstown City series. Rayen had been beaten in only 2 of 11 previous games.

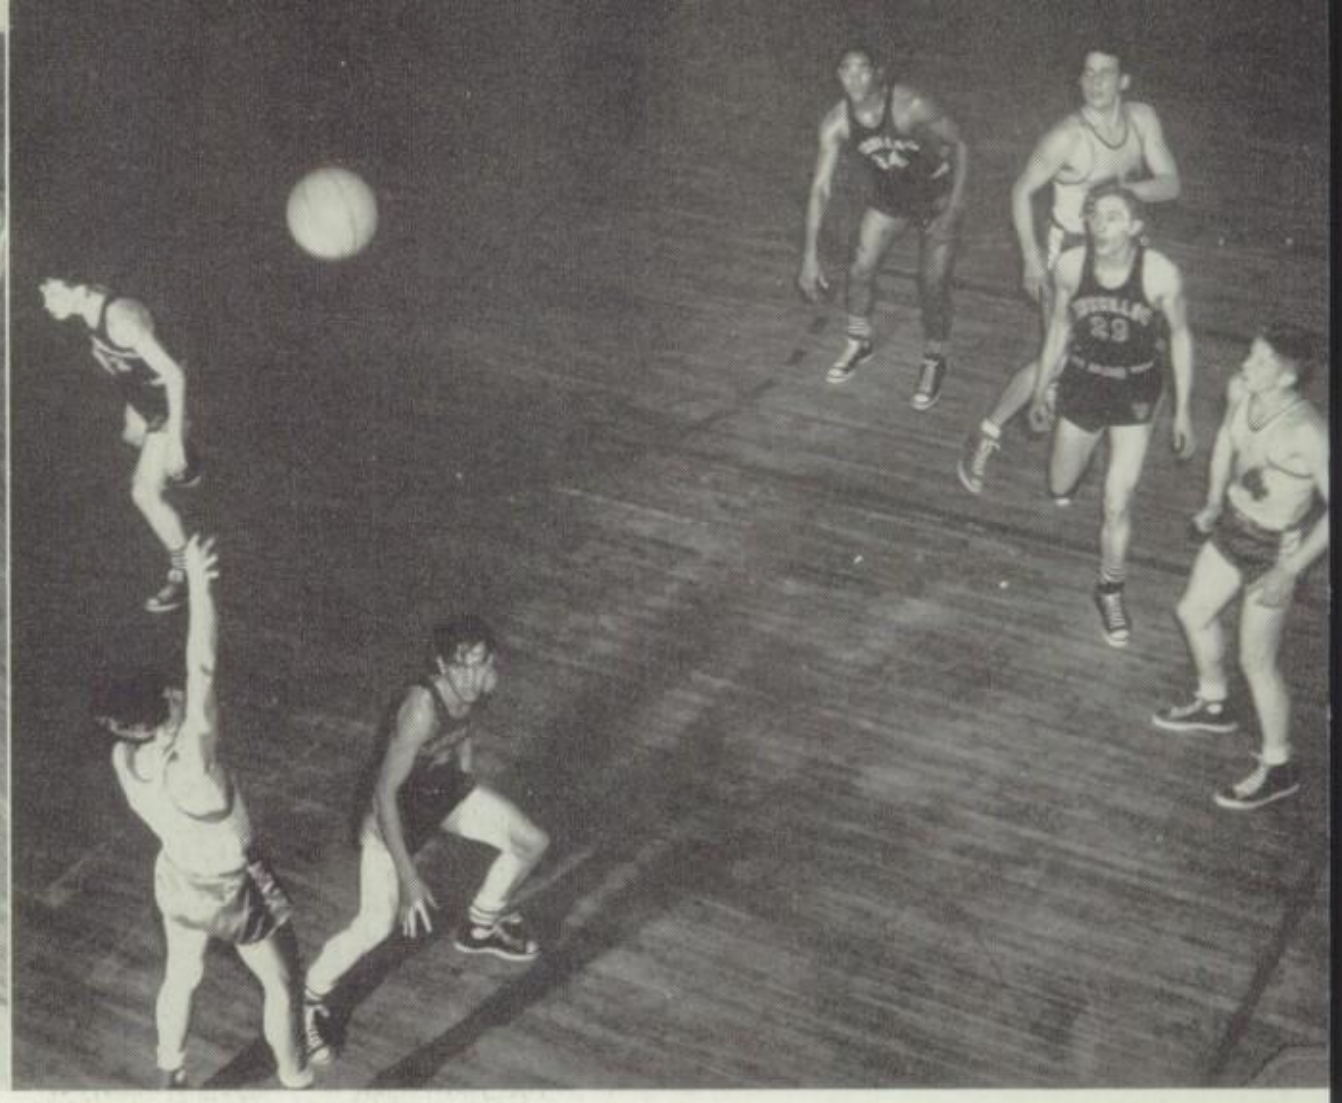
WARREN—46 ALLIANCE—34

A 22-point binge in the fourth quarter broke a 24-24 third-quarter deadlock and earned the Harding cagers their tenth victory in 16 games. In the first 3 cantos, both squads had trouble finding the range, for each team tossed up a tight defense.

WARREN—45 AKRON CENTRAL—53

Akron Central, with 10 consecutive previous losses, hung a 53-45 defeat on the unpredictable Panthers. The Rubber City five really caught fire as they played a brand of ball that made fans wonder at their poor record.

Six heads are better than one when the Panther Varsity decides to talk things over with Coach Lafferty.



J. Vlad cuts loose with a one-hander as A. Jones and J. Lewis prepare for a possible rebound.

WARREN—51 TORONTO—68

The Laffertymen battled through the first 3 periods on even terms with Toronto. However, they petered out in the fourth quarter as the Red Knights skyrocketed a 46-44 third-quarter lead to a 68-51 final score.

WARREN—49 EUCLID—52

The "fourth-quarter jinx" hit the Harding quintet again as they bowed to Euclid High School. Warren led at scattered times, trailed by 4 or 5 points, and then lost the game as Euclid pulled away in the final frame.

WARREN—54 MASSILLON—60

In the Massillon game Harding hoopsters displayed their best shooting since their victory over Alliance. The Panthers fashioned a 14-4 first-quarter lead, but Massillon came back to tie it up 27-27 at the half and spiked a Warren fourth-period spurt to bag the game.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

WARREN—38 CANTON TIMKEN—24

The tournament jitters hit both teams as Canton led Warren at the first half of play with an anemic 15-10 score. The Panthers cut loose in the second half, however, to rack up 28 points for a 38-24 win.

WARREN—49 MINERVA—48

Warren fans almost had heart failure when they saw the Panther cagers lose a 47-42 lead with 2 minutes left to play as Minerva's Lions rolled up 6 straight points to take command 48-47. A rebound batted in by Warren's center, Lotz, and some brilliant ball handling ended the game at 49-48 and qualified Warren for the semi-finals with Youngstown Rayen.

WARREN—51 YOUNGSTOWN RAYEN—69

Youngstown Rayen got revenge for their regular season's defeat by pasting a 69-51 shellacking on the Panthers. Loyal Harding rooters had hope of victory as their boys led 17-14 at the end of the first period. Rayen came back strong, however, completing a fantastic 40% of their shots to roll up a commanding margin, eliminating Warren from the tournament.

The Cubs nearly equaled the 1948 record of 15 wins and 4 losses. They did break the scoring record of any previous Reserve five. Regardless of the high scoring, there were no individual high-point men, the baskets being evenly divided among all the players. In the Canton Lehman tilt, the Cubs really blasted loose as they rolled up a record score of 76-57. With their basketball ability and high-scoring ways, all eyes are on them for the next season. The Kempmen combined speed and height into an aggregation that proved so reliable that several of the Reserves were awarded starting positions in the Youngstown Tournament games.

Lack of manpower hampered the Warren harriers as they struggled through a season of 2 losses and 1 win. In the first meet, the Panther thinclads could not keep up with the East Liverpool boys over the hilly Potters' course. Masterson's performance was the only bright spot as Warren's X-Country team dropped a decision to Canton McKinley. The Panthers closed the regular season with a victory over Salem's harriers.

Although Warren finished last in the first Ohio Scholastic Conference X-Country meet, Masterson placed second. In the district meet at Akron, Warren finished sixth, but qualified Masterson to participate in the State meet at Mansfield. Masterson, racing the best tracksters in the state, gained third place, only 7 seconds behind the winner of the 2-mile course.

"Right down the middle of the fairway, a chip, and a putt" was the Warren linkmen's motto as they golfed through one of their longest seasons. With only one regular man back, Coach D. Baker faced the problem of organizing his team with new material. He built the squad around seniors and one junior. Several promising sophomores received valuable training for the '50 season. Favorable weather conditions aided the Harding divot-diggers as they came through the season with five wins and five losses.

Because of a conflict in dates with the Regional Tournaments, the Warren team did not participate in the Yankee Run contest, which the Red and White won the previous year. The Panthers missed being victors of the Regional Tournament by one stroke. Had they won, they would have qualified for the state meet at Columbus.

Matey not only placed first in the 1949 Ohio Scholastic Golf Tournament at Columbus, but he also established a new course record. This marked his third shot at State Medalist honors. In 1947 and 1948, he placed third in the state. In addition to Medalist competition, Matey also was a member of the 1948 Warren team that was second best in Ohio, only 3 strokes behind Hamilton Public.

The wide variety of enjoyable activities offered by the G. A. A. must have proved especially appealing this year as the sportsminded girls swelled the enrollment with a 25% increase. The 10B's led the club in membership. Every day after school except Tuesday the girls met to compete in such games as ping-pong, badminton, baseball, volleyball, and their favorite sport—basketball.

A familiar sight to basketball fans was the concession table at each varsity basketball game. Through this enterprise, these sports

'49 Diamondmen

Coach Dwight Lafferty piloted the 1948 state runner-up team to their first Mahoning Valley League Championship in 1949. With the heavy hitting of Lotz who socked out .426 and Bevan's .360 and Lewis' four homeruns, combined with fancy pitching of Lotz and Stacey, the Panthers chalked up 13 victories against only one loss.

After Stacey set down Hubbard with two hits 5-1 in the first game of the District "A" Tournament, Robison's 4-hitter was enough to beat North 7-4. Lotz got the call in the semi-finals to pitch against the always tough Chaney nine. Lotz had stopped Chaney earlier in league play with four hits, but this time the Youngstowners made use of their seven hits, coupled with Warren's faulty fielding, to win 3-1, thus eliminating Harding from state chances.

However the Hardingites changed their course and set their sails for the league title. With a record of ten straight wins in league play, Coach Lafferty sent his star-studded team against the District Champions, Youngstown East. Led by the nine departing seniors and three-hit pitching by Lotz, Warren drowned the East outfit in an 11-2 score. This marked the 20th straight game that third baseman Bevan had hit safely in since May 22, 1948, and the 34th consecutive game that the team had stolen a base since the 1947 campaign. Lotz, veteran of last year's state finals, gained a niche in Harding's Hall of Fame by hurling a no-hitter over Leavittsburg, allowing only one man to reach first base. Stacey breezed through the season with a perfect record of 5 wins and no losses.

The Tracksters, hampered by spring football drills, got off to a slow start by losing their first two contests. They hit their stride, however, as they thoroughly routed their next two opponents and showed the markings of an improved squad.

The high point of the season came when Warren gave a brilliant exhibition of track prowess in the Salem Night Relays. In this meet the medley relay team won its event in the near record-shattering time of 8:09.5. They were awarded an 18" trophy for their victory. Currie soared 12' 6" in the pole vault to establish a Harding field record. This marked his 11th consecutive win.

The Salem Night Relays was the only tournament in which Warren was represented by a team. In other meets Coach Weber carried out the practice of sending only those boys who had a chance of winning against the stiff competition always encountered. Currie represented Warren in the Ohio Wesleyan Relays, tying individual vaulting honors with a leap of 11' 8". He also vaulted 12' 5" in the Cleveland East Tech Relays to smash the record established by Ollie Cline of Mansfield who won the state vaulting championship for 3 years. In the Salem District Meet Currie tied for second which qualified him for the State Tourney at Columbus. Currie, who was favored to take top State honors, accidentally spiked himself in the preliminaries. This injury forced him to withdraw from the competition.

Warren fleetsters encountered heavy tournament competition.

REAR—R. Colangelo, J. Killebrew, R. Fess, R. Williams, W. Reed, L. Reed, L. Rhinebarger*, R. Kyle, G. McPherson.

CENTER—R. Masterson, E. Dillon, J. Mehall, B. Thomas, F. Dowell, C. Battles, R. Latimer, M. Green, P. Willoughby, Coach Weber.

FRONT—D. Doing, J. Streitferdt, W. Dudek, N. Smith, J. Currie*, R. Scott, P. Jordan.

NOT IN PICTURE—H. Edington*.

*Two-year lettermen awarded gold track shoe.

TOP LEFT: That last burst of speed puts H. Edington across the tape first with B. Smith a close second in the Salem meet.

TOP RIGHT: By a whisker F. Dowell clears the bar in the high jump in the Salem meet.

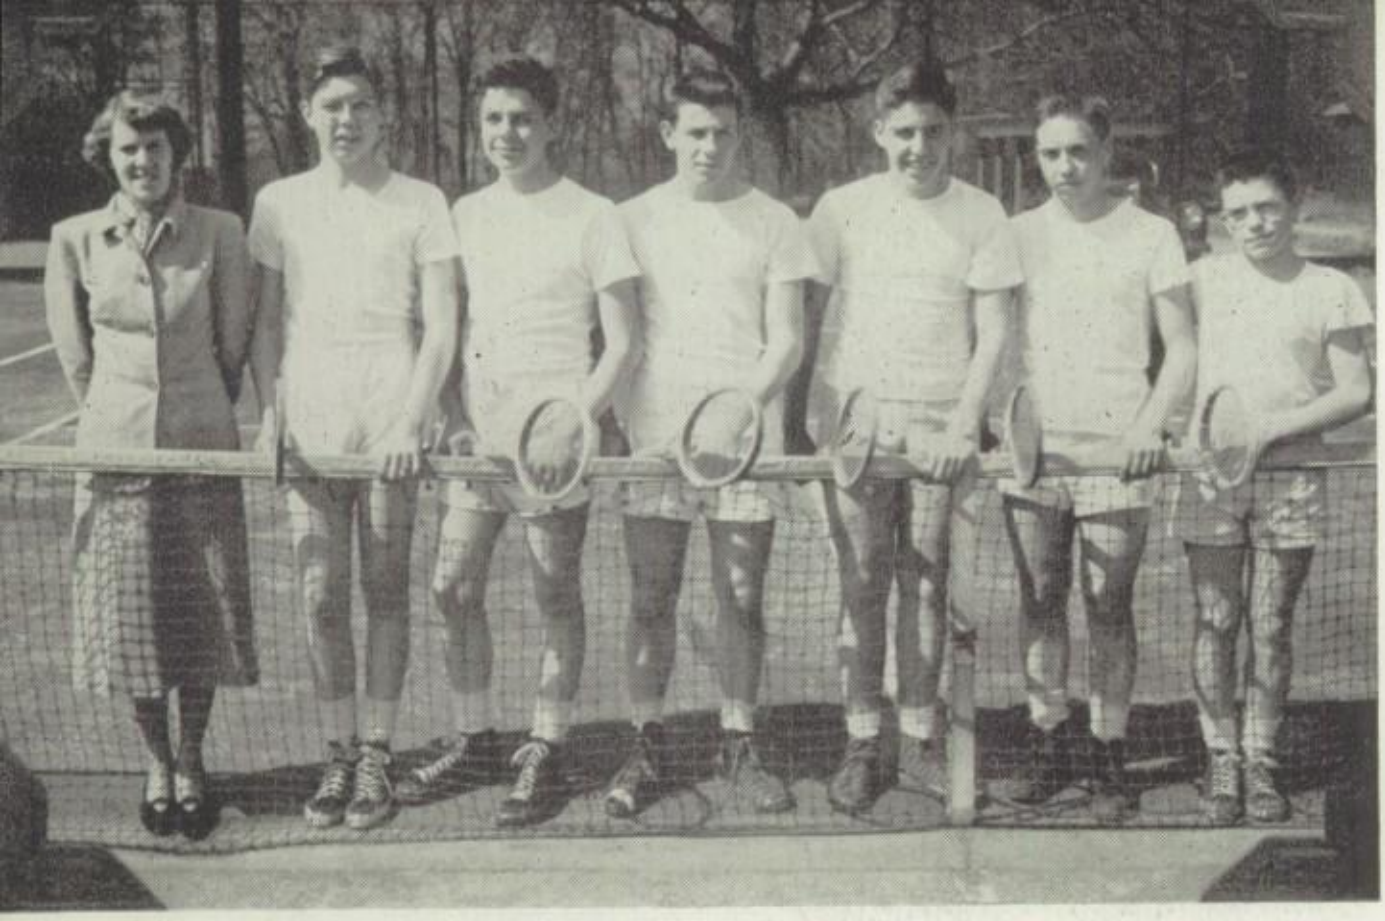
BOTTOM CENTER: That ground-eating stride is demonstrated by 880 man, D. Scott.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Twenty feet or "bust" is the hope of B. Smith as he takes off in the Salem broad jump.



Harding tennis squad held all practice sessions and played their regular schedule on the Volney Rogers Courts in Mill Creek Park. In the picture are Coach Wright, G. Och, R. Kaufman, P. Grabovac*, S. Clingan, P. Wiger, R. Kachelries.

*Two-year lettermen awarded gold medal.

'49 Racqueteers

For the third straight year Warren finished third in the Mahoning Valley Scholastic Tennis League with a record of 48 victories against 36 defeats for a .571 percentage. Miss Wright had at her disposal one letterman at the beginning of the season, but she put together a fine team with the help of another senior and 5 sophomores.

The Panthers' number-one netter, Grabovac, a 3-year veteran, finished in the runner-up spot in the District Tournament at Akron. This enabled him to compete in the State Tournament in Columbus. A stroke of bad luck shortened Pasko's stay on the State courts as he was drawn to play the eventual state champion for his first match.

Boys' Intramurals

TOP LEFT—The 10A's had to wade through stiff competition to bring home the class basketball title for 1950:

REAR—L. Casudacis, A. Haidaris, C. Vaughn, D. Rogers.

FRONT—H. Williams, S. Japuncha, W. White.

TOP RIGHT—The Linemen's Club, composed of football players, left the gridiron to trample all opposition in the '49 club basketball tourney:

REAR—H. Allard, T. Haidaris, A. Jones, W. Swope, Coach Baker.

FRONT—B. James, E. Zofko, J. DeCapito, R. Salvato.

MIDDLE—Volleyball victors are these 11A's who turned in an undefeated record in the '49 tournament:

REAR—F. Dowell, R. Harries, D. Cickelli, R. Maras.

FRONT—J. MacPherson, S. Markopulos, T. Tisher, R. Harrell.

BOTTOM—The Barons Club came out on top after a hard-fought 1950 club basketball contest:

REAR—R. Boyle, L. Rufo, S. Stacey, J. Payiavlas.

FRONT—J. Currie, D. Cickelli, W. Sunderman.
